Chicagoland DockDogs promotes the sport of dock jumping through regional jumps, training and the mentoring of its members. We provide a safe environment that is open to all people and dogs to learn and excel at the sport of dock jumping, and practice good sportsmanship in all that we do.

The Chicagoland DockDogs Club formed in January of 2005. Its purpose: to bring together people who love the sport of dock jumping. As an affiliated club of DockDogs Worldwide, Chicagoland DockDogs hosts regional jumps, monthly practices, conducts practices indoors and out and offers support for all dog/handler teams interested in the sport. DockDogs competitions are open to all breeds of dogs, all ages & sizes. If your dog loves the water, loves to retrieve, and is willing to jump off a dock to get his/her toy, then this is the sport for you. No formal training is needed, but a good sit, stay and come when called are very important. Chicagoland DockDogs continues to grow each year by adding new members and events to the calendar.

Who says dogs don't fly!

The Start of something new...

The sport of DockDogs was started in 2000 with a competition called Big Air. It is the fastest growing dog sport in the U.S. and is open to any dog. The handler tosses the dog's favorite toy into the water and lets his/her dog go. Each dog has 90 seconds to jump. The length of the dog's jump is measured and the longest jump wins.

Dogs are ranked by how far they jump...

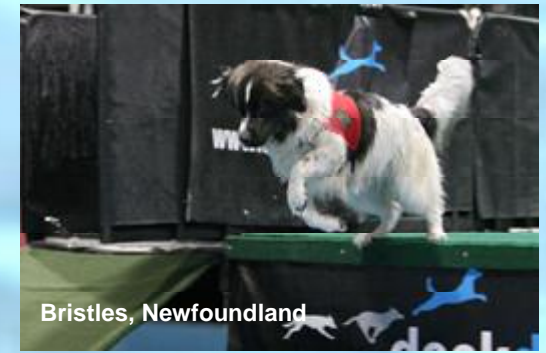

- Novice (0'1" to 9' 11")
- Junior (10'0" - 14' 11")
- Senior (15'0" - 19' 11")
- Master (20'0" - 22' 11")
- Elite (23'0" - 24'11")
- Super Elite (25ft and above)

Other DockDog competitions include Extreme Vertical which is where the dog jumps off the dock in a vertical fashion and attempts to knock off the bumper suspended in the air. The dog is then ranked by how high he/she jumps.

Speed Retrieve is where dogs are timed on how fast they can run down the dock, jump into the water, and retrieve the toy.
